MEDICINAL.

AND AGUE. TARBORO, N. C., 1878. Dr. R. H. Stevens :

Dear Sir-I feel very grateful for what your valuable midicine, Vegetine, have done in my family. I wish to express my thanks by informing you of the wonderful cure of my son; also, to let you know that Vegetine is the best medicine I ever saw for Chills, Shakes, Fever and Ague. My son was sick with measles in 1873. which left him with Hip-joint disease. My son suffered a great deal of pain, all of the time; the pain was so great he did nothing but cry. The doctors did not help him a particle, he could not lift his foot from the floor, he could not move the Louisville Courier-Journal, that Vegetine And his long gown floated out behind, was a great Blood Purifier and Blood Food. I As down the stream his way he took, without crutches. I read your advertisement in tried one bottle, which was a great benefit. He His pale hands clasping a gilt edged book. kept on with the medicine, gradually gaining. He has taken eighteen bottles in all, and he is completely restored to health, walks without crutches or cane. He is twenty years of age. I have a younger son, fifteen years of age, who i subject to Chills. Whenever he feels one coming on, he comes in, takes a dose of Vegetine and that is the last of the Chill. Vegetine leaves no bad effect upon the system like most of the medicine recommended for Chills. I cheerfully recommend Vegetine for such complaints. I think it is the greatest medicine in the world.

Percentfully Mrs. J. W. LLOYD.

Respectfully Mrs. J. W. LLOYD. VEGETINE.—When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the VEGETINE will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors. cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

EGETINE FOR DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUSNESS, AND GENERAL DEBILITY.

BEBNARDSTON, MASS., 1878. We, the undersigned, having used Vegetine, take pleasure in recommending it to all those troubled with Humors of any kind, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, or General Debility, it being the great Blood Purifier. Sold by R. L. Crowell & Sons, who sell more of it than all other patent medicine put together. Mrs. L. F. PERKINS, Mrs. H. W. SCOTT, JOSEPHUS SLATE.

VEGETINE is the great health restorer-composed exclusively of barks, roots and herbs. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it.

Mr. H. R. Stevens:

Dear Sir—We have been selling your remedy the Vegetine, for about three years, and take pleasure in recommending it to our customers, and in no instance where a blood purifier would reach the case, has it ever failed to effect a cure, to our knowledge. SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 23.

No Sect iu Heaven.

Talking of sects till late one eve, Of the various doctrines the saints believe, That night I stood in a troubled dream, By the side of a darkly flowing stream.

And a "Churchman" down to the river came; When I heard a strange voice call his name, "Good father stop; when you cross this tide You must leave your robes on the other side. But the aged father did not mind,

"I'm bound for Heaven, and when I'm there, I shall want my Book of Common Prayer; And though I put on a starry crown, I should feel quite lost without my gowo." Then he fixed his eye on the shining track.

But his gown was heavy and held him back, And the poor old father tried in vain A single step in the flood to gain. I saw him again on the other side, But his silk gown floated on the tide;

Then down to the river a Quaker strayed, His dress of a sober hue was made; 'My coat and hat must be all of gray,

I cannot go any other way.' Then he buttoned his coat straight up to the

And his broad brimmed hat he pulled down Over his forehead so cold and white. But a strong wind carried away his hat;

As he entered Heaven his suit of gray Went quietly sailing-away-away, And none of the angels question him About the width of his beaver's brim.

now." 'And I really think it will hardly do, As I'm 'close communion,' to cross with you; You're bound, I know, to the realms of bliss, But you must go that way and I'll go this.' Then straightway plunging with all his might, Away to the left-his friend at the right,

But at last together they entered in. And now when the river was rolling on, A Presbyterian church went down; Of women there seemed an innumerable

And concerning the road, they could not agree, The old or the new way, which it could be; Nor ever a moment paused to think That both would lead to the river's brink And a sound of murmuring, long and loud, Came ever from the moving crowd, You're in the old way, and I'm in the new That is the false, and this is the true," "Oh, I'm in the old way, and you in the new,

And if ever one of them chanced to say What troubles she met with on the way; How she longed to pass to the other side. Nor feared to cross over the swelling tide. A voice arose from the brethren then : "Let no one speak but the holy men :' For, have ye not heard the words of Pau'. "Oh, let the women keep silence all ?" watched them long in my curious dream. Till they stood by the waters of the stream, Then, just as I thought the two ways met. But all the brethren were talking yet,

Modest the sisters walked, and meek,

No gowns of silk, or suits of gray, No creeds to guide them, or MSS., For all had put on Christ's righteoneness."
